CROPS AND IMMIGRATION IN THE TERRITORIES.

Winnipeg, Nov. 14.—Hon. G. H. V. Bulyea, of Regina, commissioner of agriculture in the Territorial government, is in the city. In conversation with a reporter he stated that farmers in the Northwest Territories have had good crops this year, but he hardly thinks the yield per acre will come up to last season. Just now grain is beginning to move out of the country, but shippers find themselves face to face with a blockade.

Mr. Bulyea expects that the total acreage under crop in the Territories next season will be almost double, the crop acreage of this year or in the neighborhood of a million acres.

People are still rushing into the country from Alberta, and along the other sections of the Territories. Regina is full of intending settlers and land buyers and chair boarders are common at hotels, as the accommodation of the town is over taxed by the unprecedented rush.

Yesterday's grain receipts at C. P. R. points totaled 311,000 bushels. Hon. G. H. V. Bulyea, says there is a grain blockade in the Northwest Territories.

CABINET CHANGES.

The retirement of the Hon. Mr. Tarte from the public works department has been the occasion of several important changes in cabinet positions. Hon. Mr. Sutherland, who was minister of marine, becomes minister of public works, and Mr. Prefontaine, becomes minister of marine. A rearrangement of responsibility has also been made, whereby the department of marine, takes over the river improvement work, formerly controlled by the department of public works. This seems to be a much more natural division than that by which the department of marine had nothing whatever to say about the improvement of navigation. Besides it has lightened the labor and reduced the responsibility of the public works, which had become entirely overgrown and unwieldy, while that of the marine remained of little importance. During the last years of Hon. Mr. Tarte's administration of the public works the press of work was so great that many important matters dragged heavily for lack of ministerial attention. Hon. Mr. Sutherland has made a most satisfactory record as head of the marine department for nearly a year, and may be expected to do equally well as head of the public works, especially in its lessened scope.

Mr. Prefontaine is a man of affairs having been mayor of Montreal for a number of years and will no doubt be an efficient administrator. Having under his control the work of improving the navigation of the St. Lawrence he will be in a position to protect the interests of the city of Montreal, a suburb of which he represents. His popularity may be judged from the fact that he was elected in two constituencies at the last general elections. He has always been strongly opposed by the late minister of public works, and took a stand against the ex-minister on the subject of the Canadian contingents. He is a moderate protectionist. He is interested in the company which operates the Otter gold dredge on the Saskatchewan.

At the same time, but not on the same occasion, it is announced that Hon. R. W. Scott, the present secretary of state, will within a short time succeed Sir Oliver Mowat as lieutenant governor of Ontario, and will be succeeded A. Campbell, M. P., for West York. Hon. Mr. Scott has had a very long political experience extending back into the days before confederation, but still retains his mental and physical vigor to a remarkable degree. He is, however, beyond the time for active politics, and the lieutenant governorship of his native province would be a suitable rounding off of a long and honorable career.

Mr. Campbell, who is his prospective successor, is prominent, active and energetic to the last degree. He has been a member of the commons for several parliaments. He formerly resided in Chatham and represented Kent. He now resides at Toronto Junction and represents West York, or practically the western division of Toronto city. His accession would give cabinet representation to the city of Toronto, the second city in the Dominion. He is only liberal representative out of a total of six. He owns and operates large flour mills at Toronto Junction. In the election of 1903 having removed from Chatham to Toronto, he gave up his claims on the seat for Kent and contested West York against Clarke Wallace, who had been elected in 1896 by a majority of several thousand. Mr. Campbell was defeated by a comparatively small majority and on the death of Wallace contested the constituency again, this time successfully. He is a very staunch party man, and before 1896 was with his party for low tariff. In the contest of 1900 he aroused considerable comment by coming out for moderate protection. Outside of protectionist ideas his elevation to the cabinet can only be received with the fullest approval. The only pity is that the position of secretary of state does not give scope for that grasp of business and display of energy by which Mr. Campbell has made his own calling in private life a great success and which he carries with him into politics.

THE DOUKHOBORS.

The Doukhobor pilgrimage has ended without the tragedy that was confidently expected, and that would have occurred had it not been for the "persecution" to which they were subjected by the authorities in being forcibly sent to their homes. What the next move will be remains to be seen. They may stay quietly at home and attend to business or their "religious" enthusiasm may take some other fantastic and possibly less harmless form. At any rate the secret is out. They are not by any means the people they were represented to be. They cannot travel any longer on their reputation of being Russian Quakers, or of having been persecuted by an intolerant church and government for conscience sake. They have shown themselves to be nuisances personally, socially and politically. Such people as this country has no room or use for. The difference between those who went on the insane pilgrimage and those who did not is only a difference of degree not of kind. The pilgrimage was the logical sequence of their beliefs. All believed, but the difference was that those who remained at home resembled many other people to the extent that they did not live up to their beliefs. How soon they will arrive at a sufficient exaltation of spirit depends merely on the effectiveness of the preaching of the next crank who strikes their settlements; and whose missionary efforts will be helped rather than hindered by their having come off their recent pilgrimage practically none the worse.

The question now is: Shall such people be pandered to by the authorities in the future as they have been in the past? They have been dealt with and allowed to consider themselves, as a separate people. They have been aided financially as no other people have been or should be. Their disregard of law has been winked at. All no doubt with the best intentions. But only with the result that Canada has been put to serious cost and trouble and has been made a laughing stock by their antics.

This pilgrimage is the limit. It puts them outside of reason or excuse. The authorities will not hereafter be justified in dealing with them otherwise than as ordinary citizens. The law of Canada exempts from military service all whose religious beliefs prevent their taking part in the defence of their country. The Doukhobors can claim that exemption with the Mennonites, Quakers, Dunkards and others. But beyond that not a step—not a line. Their peculiar ideas regarding marriage have so far been "respected." This is a reproach to our laws and a danger to our social system. For if a Doukhobor may defy the marriage laws why may not any other person. Their political beliefs are a combination of theocracy, socialism and anarchy. The fact that they wash themselves is a strong point in their favor. But the other fact that they do not believe in work beyond providing for present need and are liable at any time to turn into a horde of tramps and beggars completely knocks out the argument of their industrial value, which at earlier stages of the game was supposed to make up for every disadvantage.

There is a general objection to the importation of people whose presence, aspirations and votes tend against the proper social, political and industrial development of the country. The bringing of the Doukhobors was a mistake, but to allow them to remain on any other terms than as ordinary citizens would be a crime. They have made several attempts to find other locations. The sooner they find them the better for Canada, as removing a problem that if it remains a problem at all can only increase in difficulty as the numbers of the people increase. There should be no problem in the matter. Canadian law is made for them as for others. If it does not suit them let them go elsewhere. This country to which so many different classes of people are coming in such numbers cannot afford to have any body of them set up their views in defiance of the general laws. Their example is too likely to be followed. The time to draw the line is at the start. This country cannot play any other so strong a card to secure desirable immigration as to have it thoroughly advertised that there are no pets before the law in Canada,—that all are treated alike.

A CRITICISM.

The Bulletin has never set up as a musical authority or critic. The ordinary members of an ordinary newspaper staff are not usually competent to give a technical criticism such as would be of practical value to musical people. At the same time Edmonton has and has had for years, a very considerable amount of musical talent. The special part of the Harvest Thanksgiving service at All Saint's church on Thursday evening last was sufficiently ambitious in design and successful in execution that a competent, criticism should be of value to all lovers of music in the town. The Bulletin begs to submit herewith a criticism furnished at request by a gentleman whose musical knowledge and ability is undoubted, and whose impartiality is beyond question.

Stainer's Magnificent and Nunc Dimittis were part of the service and through some portions of these were rather weak and unexpressive, yet taken as a whole they were well sung. The expression displayed in the forte and accelerando movements in the second part of the Gloria eliminated any deficiency before shown.

After the usual evening service C. Lee Williams' Harvest Song was sung by the choir which was augmented by the kind assistance of members from the Presbyterian, Methodist and Baptist choirs.

Considering the numerous difficulties which are ever present in getting up such a work with amateurs the cantata as a whole was well rendered.

The one very noticeable weak point in the choruses was the lack of energy and decision in the tenor and bass, but the trebles and contraltos deserve great credit for their clearness of tone and sympathetic expression, especially in the second part of the first and last choruses.

The soprano solos by Mrs. Fisher seemed wanting in vivacity. Lack of confidence may have been the cause since the second solo was much better than the first.

Miss Cameron did fairly well in her contralto solo, which being a recitative, so much expression could be given; but a little nervousness robbed it of its correct phrasing.

Respecting the accompaniment there was certainly room for improvement, but the fault lay with the instrument and not with the accompanist. Mr. Barford certainly deserves praise for persevering under such difficulties.

TWO LAWS AND FOUR WORDS.

Communicated.
A fair audience greeted Mr. Smith, of Chicago, at his opening service in the Presbyterian church last evening. Although the rev. gentleman had already given three addresses during the day, his energy seemed not one whit abated and his fourth discourse was most impressive.

The words of his text were "For the Law of the Spirit of Life in Christ Jesus has made me free from the law of Sin and Death." Sin was defined "as the self-determined following of man's perverse will in opposition to the pure and holy will of God," "all unrighteousness is sin." Whatsoever is not of faith is sin, all have sinned and the legal consequence of sin is death, a law that works as mercilessly in the spiritual world as does the law of gravitation in the material world.

"But thank God," said the speaker "there is a higher law, and that law is Christ." To the great question what shall we do with the sinner, the speaker replied, "Let him alone," the pantheist, "worship him," the materialist, "develop him," the broad school, "polish him," the ritualist, "take him into the church, but Christ sweeps aside all others saying, "Except a man be born again he cannot see the Kingdom of God."

Those who listened to Mr. Smith last evening, will wish to hear him as often as possible this week, and those who have not heard him will be well repaid for visiting his services in the Presbyterian church.

Indiscriminate Immigration.

The Mail-Enterprise has the following very sensible remarks on indiscriminate immigration based on the recent sensational outbreak of the Doukhobors: "From the Doukhobor revolt we have learned that a policy of indiscriminate immigration, which regards neither the habits nor the qualifications of immigrants is the worst of folly. It is a mistake for the present and for the future. The people who are now being established in Western Canada will give character to the most important portion of the country. We should principally encourage immigrants of our own origin, whose similarity of language, of faith, and of habits encourage the hope of a compact nation on the northern half of this continent. Above all, we should refrain from establishing here foreign tribes and communities who aspire to live apart from the rest of Canada, who will not accept the duties of citizenship, and who are not capable of assisting in the establishment of a British nation on our broad and fertile lands."

YOUNG MEN'S INSTITUTE

The debating society of the Young Men's Institute met on Friday evening under the chairmanship of Mr. Aldridge. There was a fair attendance of members.

The meeting went into committee and continued the adjourned discussion on town by-laws adopting very stringent provisions to enforce the keeping of streets and alleys in a sanitary and orderly condition.

Attention was drawn to the objectionable smells arising in summer from decaying vegetable matter even on Main street, and to obstructions caused by persons unnecessarily leaving their property on sidewalks. These matters are likely to come up again on Thursday, 20th, as the further consideration of the subject has been fixed for that date.

POMOKA.

Herald, Nov. 7.
E. W. Buck has opened a logging camp at Battle river and is now hiring men to work there this winter. About forty men will be needed. He expects to get out about two million feet of lumber to be rafted down to Pomoka early in the spring for Messrs. Blain & McKilroy, of Strathcona.

D. C. Tiffany returned on Friday from Winnipeg, S. D., where he has been operating his threshing machine for the past two months. Crops in that part of the state were fairly good this year, the yield being from twelve to twenty bushels for wheat and thirty to forty bushels of oats. Mr. Tiffany enjoyed a very satisfactory run with his machine.

One of the most successful, financially as well as socially, of country school entertainments was held at the Nebraska school house on last Thursday evening. The well arranged and ably rendered program was enjoyed by a packed audience and for the purpose of purchasing an organ for the school and Sunday school.

Leo, Sellers and O'Brien returned Saturday from their week's hunting trip to Battle lake. They had an enjoyable trip and came home well laden with game as well as their reward. They brought home with them 209 ducks, mostly green mallards, 40 brace of chickens, several geese, some partridges and a number of rabbits. They had a snapshot taken of themselves and part of the game and now have the pictures as a verification of their experiences.

Asker item; Threshing is now a thing of the past for this year in Asker. The Asker Threshing Co. and Valentine Neis have both been in here and have done good work. The yield falls short of last year although it is quite satisfactory. Oats will average about sixty bushels to the acre, and other crops in proportion. E. Kretzing got from quarter of an acre six bushels of flax of very fine quality.

Free Press, Nov. 6.—The Daily Mail makes a great spread to-day with lead-lines, "Another War Scandal," "Great Canadian Beef Consignment Wrongly Condemned." The reference is to a large shipment of Canadian tinned beef condemned as putrid at Cape Town. Subsequently, at the instance of the Canadian government, the government found it quite good, and re-issued it to troops. An official inquiry by your correspondent to-day elicits this reply: "The facts are highly colored in the Mail. If you ask my private advice, I would say tell the Canadians to shut up if they want more orders, Canada has done well and will do very well with army contracts."

MACLEOD.

Gazette, Nov. 7.
The Indians received their annual treaty money on Tuesday and the succeeding days of this week have been busy ones for the merchants of the town.

The sale of purebred swine under the auspices of the Territorial department of agriculture, held here last Saturday was fairly well attended and the bidding was brisk and spirited over the possession of most of the animals.

The Cochrane Ranch Co. shipped 311 head of beef cattle from this point last Tuesday, L. Hamilton, representing H. A. Mullins of Winnipeg, receiving them. This is about the last shipment of the year, and makes a total of over 1500 shipped by this company alone for this point.

Since the 1st of April last the Western Stock Growers' Association has expended the following amounts in wolf bounty; April $495, May $640, June $505, July $30, August $90, September $225, October $60, November (to date) $110, making a total of $2155. Since the 1st April last the following shipments have been made from Macleod; Horses 1648, cattle 4263, total 5911. During the year April 1st, 1901, to March 30, 1902, the total shipments at this point was 4202, so that already there is an increase of 1709 for the present year with five months yet to run, although of course the bulk of the shipping is over now.

The C. N. R.
Toronto, Nov. 5.—The Canadian Northern railway has purchased the northwest corner of Toronto and King streets, known as the Toronto chambers, for the general offices of the company.

FROM PEACE RIVER

J. K. Cornwall, of Bredin & Cornwall, traders at Lesser Slave lake, who arrived from Peace river on Saturday, returned on Tuesday to the Landing to take the first mail of the season through to Peace river. He leaves the Landing on the 15th. Another mail will be taken about the first of February and a third about the middle of March. Mr. Cornwall brought down the mail from Peace River Crossing. He left there on October 26th. There was no sign of winter there then. No snow and no ice. The first ice was encountered when the Athabasca was entered from Slave river on Nov. 4th. It was merely slush. Mr. Cornwall was accompanied by an Indian. They tied a log to each side of the canoe to protect it and drifted with the ice to the Landing. The Athabasca had not set fast on Nov. 7th, when the stage left. Altogether the indications were of a later fall at Peace river than at Edmonton. The season had been very favorable and the fall was very fine. The crops at both Peace river and Slave lake were excellent. At Peace river there was about 7,000 bushels of grain of which 5,000 was wheat of good sample, and the remainder oats and barley. The crop at Slave lake was of about the same amount, but there 5,000 bushels was oats and the remainder wheat and barley. Potatoes were a great crop at both settlements. At Grand Prairie where Bredin & Cornwall have a small outpost they had planted an experimental crop of wheat, oats, barley and potatoes. All did well and were not injured by frost.

The wheat grown at Peace river would be made into flour at a local mill, and the oats at Slave lake were for the use of freighters to and from that point. There is now much better accommodation in the way of hay and stopping places along the winter trail from the Landing to Slave lake and Peace river than ever before. There is hay to be had at the Landing. At Papist Creek, ten miles beyond there is hay for sale and a shelter shack. At Moose lake portage, 50 miles further up is hay and a shelter shack. At Moose river, 30 miles further, is hay, green feed and a first class stopping place kept by Donaldson & Barclay. At the east end of the lake, 30 miles further, is hay and a stopping place kept by Tom Lisle. To Slave lake post is 75 miles. The trail is along the shore of the lake, and there is abundance of hay and Indian houses where freighters can shelter for the night. At Slave lake there is plenty of hay and oats and good accommodation. On the portage between Slave lake and Peace river, 50 miles, are four or five stopping places with plenty of hay and oats. The charge made for hay is 50¢ a team for a night. The freight rate from Edmonton to Slave lake last winter was three cents, and to Peace river four cents. A large amount of freight was sent through last winter and a still larger amount will be required this winter. There is a sleigh road from Peace River Crossing to Grand Prairie by way of Dunvegan and Spirit river. There is also a sleigh road to St. John, 180 miles above the Crossing, but no freight goes St. John by land. It is all trucked up the Peace in boats in summer.

The fur prospects were never better, in the Peace river district. Rabbits and chickens are plentiful. Fairchild and party are still at work surveying, taking advantage of the fine fall. They will probably keep at work until Christmas.

INCREASE OF FISH

As showing how white fish in Lake St. Ann have increased during recent years under the provisions of the fishery regulations as enforced a half-breed named Louis Courtois recently caught a thousand fish in three nights with 150 fathoms of net having a six inch mesh. The present regulations permits a five inch mesh, but the fish are becoming so numerous that many of the people interested are desirous that the size of mesh allowed should be increased to six inches being satisfied that they can catch enough fish for their purposes with the larger mesh. They are very well satisfied with the results of the enforcement of the fishery regulations. At first they were much opposed to any interference with their free right to fish. But when they saw that the fish which before were in danger of becoming extinct have now increased so satisfactorily they appreciate the benefits of the protective measures. Of course the enforcement had to be moderate and judicious, as it was, on the present satisfactory state of affairs would not have been arrived at.

MACDONALD'S DRUG STORE

D. W. Macdonald is just bringing to completion the work of extension and rearranging of his drug premises which will double their capacity and add much to their convenience and interior appearance.

An addition of 30 feet has been built to the rear of the old front part, giving now the commodious space of 20x60 feet for main store. In the rear of the store two smaller rooms are arranged. One of these is for a private office and the other will be used as a doctor's office. These are built of movable partitions so that if further additions become necessary they can be moved without any trouble. Immediately in front of these is a dispensary. The whole room is well lighted and has plenty of space to prevent crowding.

The former addition to the old part has been moved back and joined again to the rear to be used for storing goods. At the end of the lot is another building used for keeping bottles, boxes, etc.

The premises are now a credit to any city and give proof to the growth of the town. Two clerks are employed and are kept busy.

PORT SASKATCHEWAN

METHODIST CHURCH OPENING.

Special services were held in connection with the opening of the Methodist church at Port Saskatchewan. The weather was not very favorable and all attendance from the north side of the river was cut off as the ferry had stopped running and the ice did not extend clear across the river. Still in spite of these drawbacks there was a good attendance at morning, afternoon and evening services, especially in the afternoon and evening.

In the morning the Rev. T. C. Buchanan, of Edmonton, occupied the pulpit, and again in the afternoon. In the evening the Rev. A. Forbes, of Port Saskatchewan, Presbyterian minister, preached.

The singing throughout was good. Prof. Jones, of new Lunnon, led the choir. C. G. Jones, of Edmonton, assisted in the choir and in the afternoon and evening services sang and accompanied himself on the violin. The collections throughout were good. The church is a handsome and commodious building and a credit to the congregation.

Crop Estimates.

Commercial; The Grain Dealers' Association estimates that Manitoba will produce 50,243,000 bushels of wheat, or 24.63 bushels per acre; 36,615,000 bushels of oats, or 50.50 bushels per acre; 12,067,000 bushels of barley, or 36.50 bushels per acre; and 557,436 bushels of flax seed, or 13.53 bushels per acre.

The crop of the Territories, which for commercial purposes goes in with that of Manitoba, is estimated by the same association as follows: Wheat 14,069,000 bushels, or 24 bushels per acre; oats, 12,899,000 bushels, or 46.71 bushels per acre; barley, 1,050,000 bushels, or 35.30 bushels per acre; flaxseed, 61,257 bushels, or 11.45 bushels per acre.

The grand total for the two divisions, according to this estimate, is as follows:

Wheat—64,283,000 bushels.
Oats—49,514,000 bushels.
Barley—13,108,000 bushels.
Flaxseed—618,000 bushels.

Commercial; Geo. H. Greig, who for the past ten years has been western editor of the Farmer's Advocate, with office in Winnipeg, has been appointed live stock commissioner for Manitoba by the Dominion government. In consequence he has withdrawn from the service of the Advocate. The occasion of his leaving this service was marked by a presentation on behalf of the company of a gold watch and chain to Mr. Greig.

Wreck on Crow's Nest

Pinch Creek, Echo, Nov. 5.—The west bound train on Sunday morning narrowly escaped being a total wreck. The accident happened on the line in Godsal's pasture, on the entry to one of the high built up dumps. Luckily, the engineer was running at only ten miles an hour instead of the usual twenty-five or a serious accident would have occurred. At it was the engine was derailed and rolled down an incline for 18 feet. The engineer stayed with the cab and was unhurt; the fireman jumped and received no injury. The cause of the accident was the falling away of the built up dump from underneath the rails. A sectionman passed over the spot at 11 o'clock the previous night and it was apparently solid. The wreck train from MacLeod soon arrived and the engine drew the coaches back to the Pincher siding where they remained till 4 p. m., when the track had been rebuilt. With thoughtful generosity the company kept the passengers waiting from breakfast till 4 o'clock for a meal, as the dining car men said that they had only enough food for one meal for the passengers. This when by telephoning into Pincher Creek any amount of grub could have been secured. However the rare event of a free meal at the C.P.R.'s expense was enjoyed by a very hungry crew. Superintendent Jamieson arrived from Cranbrook during the day to inspect the wreck. The engine was uninjured and was raised on Tuesday.

Headache.

Pain across the forehead or at back of head is dangerous. It slowly but surely weakens the intellectual powers, impairs the vitality and will. Headache is sometimes from the eyes but more frequently is caused by a disordered condition of the stomach and digestive organs.

Do not suffer. The pain can be cured by the harmless remedy

Abbey's Effervescent Salt

It never loses its effect. Cured by driving out the poison, and does not simply deaden the pain as do so many preparations containing narcotics.

Winnipeg Telegram, Nov. 6.

Montreal, Nov. 6.—William Mackenzie, president of the Canadian Northern railway, who was in town yesterday, when asked how much of the wheat crop his road would carry this season, replied:

"Up to the present time we have hauled, and are carrying more grain to Fort Arthur, than we did to Duluth this time last year. We expect to carry 25 per cent of the wheat crop, say 14,000,000 bushels, against 8,000,000 hauled last year. Not only our export trade, but also our import trade is equally developing, and we are carrying all kinds of merchandise into the country. General trade is ten per cent better than it was twelve months ago. Settlers are following the line, and taking upland as fast as we extend the road. The day for settlers to go ahead of railways is past, but they are following us up quickly."

"Did you see Hon. Mr. Blair's statement that Canada wanted another transcontinental road from the Atlantic to the Pacific, even if it cost $100,000,000?"

"I did." "He intimated the Canadian Northern might form the nucleus of such a road."

"Well," replied Mr. Mackenzie, complacently, "the government has been very kind to us; it has helped us along, and I have no doubt will continue to do so in the future."

"Would a road paralleling the Canadian Pacific pay?"

"The Canadian Northern has paid right along, section for section as it has been built, and if it were extended east and west in the same careful manner, there is no reason to doubt this. We have over 1,500 miles of road in operation now."

"How about your extension from the Rockies to the Pacific?"

"We expect to begin building from where our road now is, near Yellow Head Pass, to the Pacific ocean, in the spring, which is a distance of about 1,000 miles."

"Is the subsidy question with the British Columbia government settled?"

"It was practically settled months ago and we will be in a position to go on to the Pacific in the spring."

Manitoba Markets.

Commercial, Nov. 8.

Wheat.—Local Situation: The wheat movement has kept up in about the same proportion as last week. Our estimate last week that the first two months of the crop year would show 14,500 cars of wheat inspected, was only nine cars astray from the actual figures, which have since been officially stated. This shows that 11,500,000 bushels of the crop, exclusive of what has been taken by interior mills for grinding, has been shipped from interior points and passed inspection. Manitoba wheat has been firm generally this week, with a better demand for spot than for the more distant futures. At the end of last week spot 1 hard was worth 72 1/4c in store, Fort William, but by Monday the price had touched 71 1/2c, since which it has stood at around 71 1/2c to 71 3/4c until yesterday, when, under the influence of the advance in Chicago, etc., it rose to 72 1/4c, and later in the day to 72 1/2c. Prices at the close of business last night may be quoted: 1 hard 72 1/2c; 1 northern 70 1/2c; spot or delivery first half November. For delivery up to 25th November 1 hard 72 1/4c, and 1 northern 70 1/4c; and for all November 1 hard 72c and 1 northern 70c. All prices in store Fort William or Fort Arthur.

Oats.—There has been a better shipping demand for oats this week but as cars are scarce, advantage cannot always be taken of opportunities to trade. Prices are better than a week ago to the extent of 10 to 12c. 20-day No. 2 white oats are worth 28c per bushel at Fort William. On track here No. 2 white oats are worth 27 1/2c per bushel, and about 25 1/2c is the price for feed white. At country points farmers are getting 20c per bushel at central points. On the street here 18 to 20c is being offered.

Barley.—Movement is light and there is not much business doing. No. 3 extra is worth 36c per bushel here or at Fort William. No. 3, 35c, and feed grades, 34c.

Still They Come.

Free Press: The Dominion immigration department received telegrams yesterday to the effect that fifty English and seven Germans had left Montreal yesterday and that forty-three Galicians, forty-one Hungarians, and twenty other European immigrants left Halifax on Monday. By to-day's regular transatlantic express, eighty-six Russian Germans and eight English will arrive.

Land seekers to the number of seventy-six arrived from the south yesterday.

Tarte to Come West.

Montreal, Nov. 5.—A close personal friend of the Hon. Mr. Tarte states that it is the intention of the ex-minister of public works to visit Winnipeg and other points in Manitoba, and the Northwest the present month for the purpose of studying the transportation and economic conditions of the west. He will come in a quiet way, desiring to be left to himself to make his own investigations and observations.

The Doukhobors.

Tribune.

Yorkton, N.W.T., Nov. 5.—The Doukhobor women belonging to the Swan river district were entrained here this morning without any difficulty. First, those from immigration hall were taken quietly over and put in the train. Hardly a murmur was to be heard and the only delay was caused by some women who were afraid that their relatives would be left behind. The train was then backed up to the aeromotor where the entraining was continued until they were all comfortably placed in the cars. Most of the women seemed anxious to go home. After the Swan river people were placed in the cars they began their plaintive chants but it seemed to have a more cheerful air than when they first marched into the town. Mr. C. W. Speers, who accompanied the train as far as Gladstone when it will be left in charge of Agent Bartley, of Swan River, and a staff of officers. The train contained about 530 souls and will leave here about noon. Last night three men returned from the pilgrimage. They were three brothers, one of whom was violently demented from the extreme exposure. The two brothers came back to take care of their unfortunate brother.

The women and children who were housed in Dunlop's implement warehouse, have all been removed to the immigration hall where they will be more comfortable. The Doukhobors remaining here have expressed themselves as anxious to return to their own villages and it is likely their wishes will be complied with in a few days.

Car Shortage at Moose Jaw.

Times, Nov. 7.—The C. P. R. tie-up is now more effective than ever. Every elevator in Moose Jaw is full and no wheat to speak of has been taken in since Monday. Not only is the company unable to move the wheat, but they are unable to furnish anything like a half decent freight service. So crowded has been the yard at this point that our merchants have had to wait five and six days after a car had arrived, before it could be placed. Cars over due in Vancouver and eastern points have laid in the yard for days, waiting for power to move them. Freight destined for Moose Jaw have laid at Pasqua, seven miles east, for days, and was not brought to town. Last Saturday night the Prince Albert train arrived at Pasqua Junction at 10 o'clock and did not get to Moose Jaw until five o'clock Sunday morning. There were over 100 cars switched onto to Soo branch line, and besides there were 45 cars and three dead engines between Moose Jaw and the Junction.

Winnipeg Grain Inspection

Commercial, Nov. 8.—During the week ending Oct. 31st there were inspected at Winnipeg 2,879 cars of grain, comprising the following:

Wheat—No. 1 hard, 1,275 cars; No. 1 northern, 810 cars; No. 2 northern, 814 cars; No. 3 northern, 187 cars; No. 4, 52 cars; rejected, No. 1, 81 cars; rejected, No. 2, 10 cars; no grade, 3 cars; feed, 8 cars; condemned, 2 cars; making a total of 2,749 cars.

Oats.—Extra, No. 1, 1 car; No. 1 white, 23 cars; No. 2 white 12 cars; 3 mixed, 3 cars; 3 white, 2 cars; feed 8 cars; rejected, 2 cars; total, 45 cars.

Barley.—No. 3, 6 cars; feed, 4 cars; rejected, 1 car; total, 11 cars.

Flax.—No. 1, 71 cars; No. 2, 3 cars; total 74 cars.

The total number of cars of grain inspected as above was 2,870, of which 2,309 were on the C. P. R. and 570 on the C. N. R. roads.

Manitoba Weather and Crops.

Commercial, November 8.—The long season of fine weather came to an end with the close of last week. This week the weather has been mostly dark and threatening, with frequent light sprinkles of rain and snow. This morning it looks as though winter was about to set in, the temperature being much colder. Threshing has been interfered with but many of the machines have finished work. In some sections threshing will be going on for some time yet. Farmers have been pushing plowing as much as possible, but the snowfall was heavy enough to stop plowing in some sections, while in other districts there was only enough to whiten the ground. If it keeps as it is this morning, plowing will be stopped by frost.

A Pioneer in the West.

Mail-Enterprise: A pioneer in the politics and development of what we now call New Ontario has passed away by the death of Simon J. Dawson. Mr. Dawson explored the western country as a civil engineer as early as 1857, and in 1868 constructed the road from Lake Superior to the Red River, known as the "Dawson Route." It was by this road that the Wolseley expedition was able to reach Fort Garry and crush the first Riel rebellion. Mr. Dawson sat both in the Ontario legislature and the house of commons for many years, and it was his belief that the whole Algoma district should form a separate province between Ontario and Manitoba. His brother, Father Dawson, was long a well known figure in Ottawa, where Mr. Dawson has himself lived in recent years. His death removes one of the worthy old pioneers of western exploration.

The Bills Still Roll Up.

London, Nov. 4.—A civil service estimate has been issued, placing the additional amount required as a grant to aid the Transvaal and Orange River Colony, during the present financial year at $40,000,000.

The sum of $15,000,000, is to be devoted to a grant to Burgers; $10,000,000 to British sufferers, by the war and $15,000,000, is to be used for loans promised, by the terms of surrender, to aid in resettling the colonies.

MURDER AT LEDUC.

Monday morning about 6:30, Charles A. Buckle, a farmer residing about 16 miles southwest of Leduc, shot and wounded Robt. Heddel, a neighbor. Buckle, who is violently insane, has been arrested and is now awaiting trial at Fort Saskatchewan. Heddel died of his wound about three hours after being shot.

Word was received at the police barracks here Tuesday morning from Leduc stating that a man had gone insane and wounded another and asking for police to arrest him. Two police were accordingly sent when another message came that the wounded man was dead and the murderer raving insane.

Major Belcher went down on Wednesday morning, taking Coroner Braithwaite with him. Buckle was arrested Tuesday night. The coroner's inquest was held over the body of Heddel at 4 p. m., Wednesday. The verdict reached was "That Robert Heddel came to his death by a shot from a revolver in the hands of Charles Buckle; also the said Charles Buckle was at the time violently insane."

Thursday morning Buckle was committed to stand trial for the murder of Heddel, by B. T. Ford, J. P. He was brought up on last night's train to the barracks in town and taken down to Fort Saskatchewan this morning. His trial will probably take place on the return of Judge Scott. Buckle is an Englishman, about 35 years of age, and muscular, weighing probably 200 pounds or over. He is a single man and lived alone on his farm in the settlement about 16 miles southwest of Leduc. Heddel is also an Englishman and leaves a wife. He was a neighbor of Buckle's.

Of late the neighbors had noticed something wrong with Buckle and suspected that he was going insane. They frequently visited him and had taken the precaution to take away his rifle and shot gun from his house, but were not aware that he had a revolver in his possession. On the morning of the tragedy several of his neighbors were present at the house keeping watch over him. Buckle appears to have got impatient and ordered one of them to leave. To humor him the man got up and went outside when Buckle walked over to the lamp and blew it out.

Heddel and a man named Molson struck matches simultaneously to relight the lamp, when Molson, by the light of the matches, saw Buckle aiming at Heddel with a revolver. Before he could give warning the shot was fired and Heddel fell to the floor, shot in the left temple. Buckle then turned his revolver on Molson and snapped it twice but it missed fire both times.

Buckle then ordered all the men outside on pain of being shot if they refused to go. They all left the house and Buckle chased them for some distance. Nearly in the house of Wm. Buckle, brother of Charles A. Buckle, Wm. Buckle armed himself with a gun and with the neighbors returned to the house where they met Charles who had returned his revolver to his pocket. Asked by William to give up the revolver he denied having it. William told him to give it up or he would shoot him. Charles, seeing the neighbors armed, said if he gave it up they would shoot him, but William told him to go into his (William's) house and he would be safe. Charles then gave up the revolver to William and went into William's house.

Two men returned to Chas. Buckle's house and placed Heddel in bed, but he died about three hours without gaining consciousness.

The prisoner at present is a raving maniac and on account of his great size and strength is a dangerous man to deal with. He is kept in a straight jacket. He will probably be sent to the asylum when his trial comes up.

RE ELECTRIC LIGHT.

The electric lights will probably be turned on about the middle of next week along Jasper avenue from the Hudson's Bay store to the Jasper Hotel. All outlying points will have to be cut off for some time longer, it may be for several weeks.

The new crank shaft for the engine has arrived by express from Amherst, N. S., and the engine and boilers will be in shape in a few days. Good time has been made in moving the old plant to the new building. Were it not for outside delays all the lights could be turned on almost immediately. But another trouble has been added to the already unlucky situation, and that is the lack of necessary copper wire to string from the new power house to the old lines. This is the fault of the firm from whom it was ordered in not shipping when agreed upon. As a result there is no new wire on hand and no satisfaction can be had as to when it is likely to arrive.

The wire required is No. 4 copper, which cannot be purchased or borrowed anywhere near as cheap as it is being made to relieve the situation. By taking down the line out to the Hudson's Bay fort, which is No. 8, doubling it and making temporary use of it on the poles from the power house. It is expected that this will not prove sufficient. In that case the wire heading out to the public hospital will be taken down and used.

This entails considerable labor as when the required wire arrives what is being taken down and strung to the power house now will have to be returned to its original place. However, it will relieve the darkness in the business part of the town, which otherwise might extend several weeks longer.

FORT SASKATCHEWAN.
The attendance at the opening service of the Fort Saskatchewan Methodist church was satisfactory considering the inclement weather. Three services were held on Sunday, the evening congregation filling the church. Revs. Buchanan and Forbes officiated. The choir gave several anthems and the congregation joined heartily in the hymn singing. The Canadian hymn was led at all the services.

On Monday evening the snow fell fast and the wind blew hard but notwithstanding a good sized audience assembled. This was served in the parlour. A public meeting was held in the church. Mr. Jones, of Edmonton, assisted in several numbers of the programme, his violin and cello being in frequent use. Mr. R. Berg, who has lately come from Quebec, Rev. A. Forbes, R. Finley, and G. W. Sparling also gave freely of their services.

Prof. S. Jones, organist of the church, always able and willing, maintained his reputation as an accomplished musician. As the church is not quite completed the dedication of the building did not take place.
It will be dedicated upon completion. Regular services will be held on Sunday at 7:30 p. m., Sunday school at 11 a. m.

UNION MEETINGS.
The union meetings in progress at the Presbyterian church are growing in attendance and interest. The evangelist, Rev. Merton Smith is engaging the attention of the people; the old truths devoted of their families and the opposing theological dress, presented in a reasonable matter of fact way, illustrated from a rich experience of travel and home by a wonderful life story, are finding willing ears and receptive hearts. Meetings will continue during next week.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR.
The Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor of the Presbyterian church held a social in the basement of the church on Monday evening, Nov. 10th. There was a large attendance. Games and a musical programme constituted the evening's proceedings. Refreshments were served. Those who took part in the programme were Miss Webster, violin, Mrs. Walker, Miss McDougall and Miss Clara Oliver, piano. Mr. Boddy and Mr. Webb, vocal solos.

—The team of horses engaged from Larose & Skarrett's livery stable, which were not returned on time and thereby caused some suspicion of theft, were brought back safely being five days overdue.
